VOL. 8. No. 203 CHARLEROI, WASHINGTON CO., PA., FRIDAY, APRIL 3, 1908 One Cent

ACKNOWLEDGE THAT TENER HAS NEW CASTLE

Difference Among Factions Does Not Divide Support For Charleroi Man

KNOW THE METHODS

And Record of Congressman Too Well to Trust Acheson.

New Castle, April 2.—That J. K. Tener will carry New Castle by a big majority over E. F. Acheson is now a foregone conclusion. This is conceded by the new Acheson supporters who have attempted to stem the waning power of the Washington county candidate. While there have been numerous political factions in New Castle, and the voters there are still divided on some of the minor officers, all are united on congressman, and J. K. Tener is the choice of the voter. He will carry the city by a big majority at the primaries April 11, it is claimed.

Not only will Tener carry New Castle, but he will run equally well throughout the county, and will roll up a substantial majority. This is conceded by astute politicians who have watched the campaign closely. Mr. Acheson's attempt to stampede the local option people to his support has met with a dismal failure. Mr. Tener's clear cut declaration in letter to Thomas D. Brown, of New Brighton, defining his position on local option, is in striking contrast to Mr. Acheson's vague and evasive declarations on the subject, and has turned a host of the local option supporters in this county to Mr. Tener.

The church and temperance people have come to see that Mr. Tener, with a good business record, is more to be trusted to promote the temperance interests that Mr. Acheson, with a bad political record. Too many people are conversant with the methods formerly employed by Mr. Aheson to carry the district for himself to give credence to his local option professions in this campaign.

As in Beaver county, Mr. Acheson is trying to play both sides of the issue. When he first began coming into the county he sought out the ministers of the churches and endeavored to line them up for himself on the local option question. Now he is working among his old supporters and offering them inducements to support him and work on election day as they always did.

Mr. Acheson has been in disrepute in labor circles. As in previous campaigns, he ignored all invitations to meet with labor and define his attitude, while Mr. Tener, on the contrary, met the different conventions and declared himself most satisfactorily.

Mr. Tener is gaining ground daily, and a canvass among the prominent business places in any of the towns will show how strongly the sentiment is running in his favor.

The people of New Castle are not as well acquainted with Acheson's political record as they are in Washington county. It is not as generally known here that liquor was used by the wholesale to further his candidacy, but those who have the means of finding out these things are certain that his stand in this campaign is only a pretext to have himself sent back to congress.

BLOODHOUND TRACKED ROBBERS TO PLACE WHERE BOOTY WAS HAULED AWAY

Charleroi's far-famed bloodhound was in requisition at Beallsville yesterday, where a daring robbery had been prepetrated the night before. Two of the leading stores of that place are heavy losers. The shoe store of C. R. True was entered by a window and goods to the amount of $80 carried away. The hardware store of Geo. J. Campbell was robbed of $60 worth of cutlery, firearms, etc., and about $40 in cash. Detective Riggle and Officer Osborne went out with the bloodhound and an investigation was made. Tracks about the two buildings entered showed that two burglars had been at work. The dog immediately took the scent and followed the trail across the fields and down a lane to the public road, where it was evident that the thieves had a buggy awaiting them to carry away the large amount of booty which they had brought with them. No further trace could be found.

JOHN W. VOGEL'S MINSTRELS COMING TO CHARLEROI

John W. Vogel's Big City Minstrels have reached the highest summit of perfection, towering above all similar attractions, a monument to the march of progressive minstrel enterprise.

It is unequaled, conducted on a broad and liberal basis, the company containing the leading lights of minstrelsy, the very cream of laugh producers, and the pick of high class novelty presenting a program entirely different to all other minstrel organizations, and a welcome relief from the old and thread-bare methods so long in use by similar enterprises. The public's wants have been carefully considered by Manager Vogel, who has acquired recognition for the advancement and further development of minstrelsy, receiving the praise and steadfast financial support of all lovers of amusement. This famous organization will be seen at Coyle theatre April 9th. A grand and imposing free spectacular street parade will be given on that day.

Edward Appleby, of the Monongahela Valley was arrested this morning early at West Brownsville Junction, by a railroad detective, for carrying concealed weapons. He later plead guilty before Justice Rice and was bound over to court.

Appleby had a revolver in his posession when arrested and did not seem to be in the least alarmed when it was brought to light. He said it was fashionable among his associates to carry a gun.

COMPANY WITH PLANT HERE ASKS FOR RECEIVER, WHICH IS GRANTED

A. M. Hamilton filed a bill in equity at Pittsburg yesterday asking that a receiver be appointed for the W. H. Hamilton Company, glass bottle manufacturers. The plantiff, who owns 661 shares of stock in the company, states that the concern is unable to meet pressing indebtedness, and is insolvent. He sets forth that the company has capital stock issued to the amount of $211,400 and that at the present time the liabilities consist of bills payable amounting to $157,000; accounts payable, $16,500, and a mortgage on the company plant of $139,000, given to secure certain debts. The assets consist of bills receivable, $6,000; real estate and equipment of plant, $275,000 and finished material on hand valued at $9,000. It is stated that creditors of the company are about to get judgment on their claims, and it will be to the benefit of all the creditors if a receiver is named. The company filed an answer admitting insolvency.

OVERCOME WHILE MAKING ROUNDS

As he did not come on time they started to hunt him, and found him in one of the entries, overcome by some trouble with his heart. He was at once removed to his home, and a physician summoned.

JUVENILE MINSTRELS MAKE GREAT HIT IN FIRST PERFORMANCE

The Juvenile Minstrels played to a large audience at the Charleroi School hall last night and proved that nothing had been said of their accomplishments that was not true. The youngsters went through their parts in a manner that would do credit to professionals. Their ballads and end songs were well rendered and the familiar quips of the end "kids" were a source of much delight to the audience.

The olio was particularly good. Little Benjamin Jones made a great hit in his singing act. Vandergould in his handcuff and strait jacket escape tricks took well.

Albert Schoener in buck and wing dances was good. The cake walk by the company was something new and showed much training.

Much credit is due Johnnie Jenkins for his able handling of the boys. The show will be repeated tonight.

While engaged in removing the bodies of a number of old soldiers from the old graveyard on the west side of North Franklin street, Washington, the other day, the petrified body of a woman was found. Nothing marked the grave and no record could be found as to how long the body had been in the grave. Only the head and shoulders were unearthed, but the shape of the body containing the outlines and features of the woman were distinctly noticeable.

COMMITTEE NOT ABLE TO REACH AN AGREEMENT

Arbitration Clause Suits Miners, But Wage Scale Comes First.

GOOD SUPPLY OF COAL

Stored Along Roads, So That Month's Suspension Will Not Be Felt.

The joint scale committee of the operators and miners, which has been meeting in the assembly rooms of the Pittsburg Coal Company, adjourned sine die yesterday, without being any nearer an agreement than when it first convened. Hope of settlement of the dispute came from another quarter in the afternoon, however, when National President T. L. Lewis, of the miners, wired from Indianapolis a request for a conference with the operators and the latter promptly accepted. The reviving of the interstate convention may be the outcome of this conference.

The question of an arbitration clause, providing that where a dispute occurred in one mine it should not affect the other mines of a company and, further, there should be no suspension of works, was favorably regarded by the miners. From the conciliatory attitude they displayed toward this clause, it is probable it would have been adopted promptly had the wage agreement been reached. While the deadlock was on the telegram from Mr. Lewis came and it was decided to drop the negotiation here.

While the scale committee was meeting, the convention of the miners in Moorehead hall was having its own troubles. The greater part of the morning session was taken up with a discussion of a resolution presented by Delegate Van Bittner, making charges of negligence against the National Organizer William Little, and asking National President Lewis not to reappoint him. Little addressed the convention, denying the charges and declaring that his records and reports are filed at national headquarters. The resolution was referred to the grievance committee.

National Board Member S. A. Wetzel arrived in Pittsburg from Indianapolis yesterday and will assist in carrying out the orders of President Lewis. He was accompanied by Thomas Haggerty of district No. 2. Haggerty addressed the convention. The miners will hold another meeting this morning.

There will be no resumption of mining until the agreement is reached with the miners, according to one prominent operator. He said yesterday that while he recognized the merit of President Lewis' idea to have a general resumption, it would not take place until the scale had been signed. At least, he said he was for having the final agreement before the mines opened up and he thought most of the other operators felt the same way. There appears to be a good supply of coal, and no fear is felt for a month, at least, even if the mines should remain idle that long. It is claimed about 13,000,000 bushels are stored along the railroads in the Pittsburg district. The non-union mines in the Irwin field are working as usual, and these, with the coal stored, it is asserted by some, will keep the supply up to demand for some time.

Craven on Tener's Platform.

The Acheson newspapers and some of the speakers who have been shouting for local option, but who have been doing so for certain people rather than for the movement, have been unsparing in their denunciation of Mr. Tener for his position on local option. Those same people have purposely misrepresented what Mr. Tener said or have ignored it. They have at the same time lauded Frank Craven for his position on the question.

Mr. Tener some weeks ago made a very clear statement of his position and has since enlarged upon it. In his published letter to the people he said:

"Referring to our recent conversation relative to my attitude on the liquor license question, I desire to make my position thereon plain to you and all other fair minded citizens.

"Admitting that there is an honest difference of opinion as to the details of a local option bill, let me say that I would not assume to dictate to a State legislative body, of which I shall not be a member, just what kind of a bill in all such details that body should pass; but I am unalterably of the opinion that the right should be given the people in any designated territory to decide by their votes whether or not license should be granted, and I would give my support to the bill presented by and saisfactory to those friends of local option having charge of it in the State Legislature, where, and where only, the question must be settled."

Mr. Craven, who is put forth as the Simon pure, unadulterated oracle on this question, in his answer to the interrogatories addressed to the candidates as to their position, said:

"Replying to the third and fourth questions my answer is as follows:

"I am for local option; it's an American principle, giving the people the right to decide for themselves by ballot, this much vexed question of license or no license. And, if elected, I would work and vote for that local option bill agreed upon by the representative temperance people of the state, after due deliberation and consultation."

Now in all candor it must be admitted that Mr. Tener and Mr. Craven stand on the same platform. And any more cavil as to Mr. Tener's attitude should cease—would simply be useless. Mr. Craven evidently was satisfied with the platform of his neighbor on the Mononaghela and got as nearly as possible to it. If Mr. Tener does not stand for local option neither does Mr. Craven.

If it wasn't that a decided loose state of affairs is disclosed where strict watch should be kept over a decidedly loose and dangerous set of men, there would be a laugh at the idea of a prisoner in the Washington county jail getting drunk and while in the mood for any kind of rash action deciding that he would leave the refuge afforded him by the commonwealth and run away from jail. That is one of the features of carelessness about the jail that has recently been discovered and nobody is laughing at it either. Just imagine Judge Taylor out walking one of these sunshiny days and being accosted by a prisoner whom he recently sentenced and being asked by the "prisoner" in maudlin tones of too much drug store booze if the sentence couldn't be shortened some. This is another one of the examples of the way the county jail is run. The superintendent of prison labor, if there is one, must be taken his vacation early this year.

A club has been formed for the remarkable purpose of providing the truth or falsity of the proposition that the earth is hollow. Just what benefit will accrue if the sphere is found to have a roomy exterior is not shown, but it will doubtless be utilized as a lecture room for the vociferous Bryan.

SOME OF

Fifty Reasons Why the Voters Should Not Support Acheson Against Tener For Congress

Because he caused political assessments to be levied upon the saloons of the district, and forced the proprietors into politics.

Because in previous campaigns he has countenanced the use of liquor in politics to gain his personal ends.

Because he uses the fiscal department of Washington county to promote his political interest.

Because he has voted the assemblymen of Washington county for Penrose against the protests of his constituents backed by a petition bearing 5,000 signatures.

Because he seeks to be nominated by vilifying a man whose character has never been assailed.

Because it is very important that the next Congress be composed of real Republicans and Mr. Acheson is no longer regarded as a Republican by the great statesmen at Washington.

Because the prevailing idea that he will bolt the party if not nominated places him in bad grace with the party.

Because he did not and cannot carry his home town, Washington, where the people know him better than any place in the district.

Because a man who has spent a major part of his life in silence upon the great question of temperance is not a fit leader to follow in a campaign for civic righteousness.

Because his weakness was shown two years ago when the districts where liquor was sold came to his rescue, and it was the whiskey vote that elected him

How He Did It.

"When I was connected with a certain western railway," says a prominent official of an eastern line, "we had in our employ a brakeman who, for special service rendered to the road, was granted a month's vacation.

"He decided to spend his time in a trip over the Rockies. We furnished him with passes.

"He went to Denver and there met a number of his friends at work on one of the Colorado roads. They gave him a good time and when he went away made him a present of a mountain goat.

"Evidently our brakeman was at a loss to get the animal home with him, as the express charges were very heavy at that time. Finally, however, hitting upon a happy expedient, he made out a shipping tag and tied it to the horns of the goat. Then he presented the beast to the office of the stock car line.

"Well, that tag created no end of amusement, but it served to accomplish the end of the brakeman. It was inscribed as follows:

"'Please pass the butter. Thomas J. Meechin, brakeman, S. S. and T. Ry.'"
—Harper's Weekly.

SCHOOL BOARD HAS REGULAR MONTHLY MEET

The School Board met in regular monthly session last night. The routine business was gone through, bills and other matters of monthly occurence coming up for action of the board. Letters from each of the teachers, concerning their work were in the hands of the seretary and a number of them were read, the others being laid on the table until the next meeting. Those letters are ones asked for some time ago by the board, so that they might become better acquainted with the work of the respective teachers, and gain an idea of what the student had to become familiar with in each room.

Prof. W. D. Wright made a lengthy verbal report for the past month, it being satisfactory. The progress being made on the new building was reported. Many unimportant matters were talked of, but no further business of consequence done.

Coincidence.

The strange story told by a defaulting debtor of his being recognized after he had been for six years trying to live down the past is not so strange a story as one which came within the ken of Professor Jowett. A good man went wrong, was caught and sentenced at Liverpool to imprisonment. After the sinner had served his term Jowett and others helped him, and he obtained a colonial editorship where his past was unknown. He did well; was a new man. One day a tornado swept off the roof of his office. Under the roof was discovered a batch of old English papers which had been placed there and forgotten after the mail had brought them. He set members of his staff to work to get out of the derelicts anything which might be interesting enough to print. The first thing that they found was a full report of the trial and conviction of the man himself, their editor, at Liverpool all those years before.—St. James' Gazette.

Why not healthful heating

HAVEN'T you noticed when the indoor air is so hot and dry that people feel chilly? It is because the hot air from the furnace in its search for moisture is robbing your skin, eyes, throat, lungs, and nostrils.

AMERICAN Radiators and IDEAL Boilers never overheat the air, but warm it mildly and genially. It is the most healthful heat known — that is why they are used exclusively in hospitals, greenhouses, laboratories, and in palatial homes.

AMERICAN RADIATORS & IDEAL BOILERS are now made in sizes to fit smallest cottages, stores, etc. The prices are so attractive and the results so economical, no one can longer afford to put up with the nuisance or run the risks of old-fashioned heating.

You Can Easily Operate This Typewriter Yourself

Don't worry your correspondent.
Don't write him anything by hand that takes him time to make out—that may leave him in doubt—that he can't easily read.
And don't fill out legal papers or card memos—or make out accounts or hotel menus in your own handwriting.
It looks bad, reflects on your standing, makes people think you can't afford a stenographer, and is sometimes ambiguous.
You can write out your letters—make out an abstract—fill in an insurance policy—enter your card memos—make out your accounts or a hotel menu or do any kind of writing [illegible] size or thickness of paper and space any way you want on

The OLIVER Typewriter

You can write any of these things if you do not happen to have a stenographer.
For you can easily learn, with a little practice, to write just as rapidly, and as perfectly, as an expert operator on the OLIVER. Because the OLIVER is the simplest typewriter. And you can see every word you write. About 40 per cent. more durable than any other typewriter, because it has about 80 per cent. less wearing points than most other typewriters.
80 per cent. easier to write with than these other complicated, intricate machine that require "humoring"—technical knowledge—long practice and special skill to operate.
Than machines which cannot be adjusted to any special space—with which it is impossible to write abstracts, insurance policies, or odd-size documents except you buy expensive special attachments requiring experts to operate.
You can adjust the OLIVER to any reasonable space—you can write on any reasonable size and thickness of paper, right out to the very edge, without the aid of any expensive attachments or special skill, and your work will be neat appearing, legible and clear.
For the OLIVER is the typewriter for the doctor, the lawyer, the insurance agent, the merchant, the hotel proprietor—or any man who does his own writing.
Write us now for our booklet on the simplified features of the OLIVER.

Nearly every man who works steadily makes more than a living. During these slow times the men who have saved something appreciate what it is to have something laid away for a rainy day. THE CHARLEROI MAIL

VOL. 8. NO. 203 CHARLEROI, WASHINGTON CO., PA., FRIDAY, APRIL 3, 1908 One Cent

ACKNOWLEDGE THAT TENER HAS NEW CASTLE

Difference Among Factions Does Not Divide Support For Charleroi Man

KNOW THE METHODS

And Record of Congressman Too Well to Trust Acheson.

New Castle, April 2.—That J. K. Tener will carry New Castle by a big majority over E. F. Acheson is now a foregone conclusion. This is conceded by the new Acheson supporters who have attempted to stem the waning power of the Washington county candidate. While there have been numerous political factions in New Castle, and the voters there are still divided on some of the minor officers, all are united on congressman, and J. K. Tener is the choice of the voter. He will carry the city by a big majority at the primaries April 11, it is claimed.

Not only will Tener carry New Castle, but he will run equally well throughout the county, and will roll up a substantial majority. This is conceded by astute politicians who have watched the campaign closely. Mr. Acheson's attempt to stampede the local option people to his support has met with a dismal failure. Mr. Tener's clear cut declaration in letter to Thomas D. Brown, of New Brighton, defining his position on local option, is in striking contrast to Mr. Acheson's vague and evasive declarations on the subject, and has turned a part of the local option support in this county to Mr. Tener.

The church and temperance people have come to see that Mr. Tener, with a good business record, is more to be trusted to promote the temperance interests that Mr. Acheson, with a bad political record. Too many people are conversant with the methods formerly employed by Mr. Aheson to carry the district for himself to give credence to his local option professions in this campaign.

As in Beaver county, Mr. Acheson is trying to play both sides of the issue. When he first began coming into the county he sought out the ministers of the churches and endeavored to line them up for himself on the local option question. Now he is working among his old supporters and offering them inducements to support him and work on election day as they always did.

Mr. Acheson has been in disrepute in labor circles. As in previous campaigns, he ignored all invitations to meet with labor and define his attitude, while Mr. Tener, on the contrary, met the different conventions and declared himself most satisfactorily.

Mr. Tener is gaining ground daily, and a canvass among the prominent business places in any of the towns show how strongly the sentiment is running in his favor.

The people of New Castle are not so well acquainted with Acheson's political record as they are in Washington county. It is not as generally known here that liquor was used by the wholesale to further his candidacy, but those who have the means of finding out these things are certain that his stand in this campaign is only a pretext to have himself sent back to congress.

BLOODHOUND TRACKED ROBBERS TO PLACE WHERE BOOTY WAS HAULED AWAY

Charleroi's far-famed bloodhound was in requisition at Beallsville yesterday, where a daring robbery had been prepetrated the night before. Two of the leading stores of that place are heavy losers. The shoe store of C. R. True was entered by a window and goods to the amount of $80 carried away. The hardware store of Geo. J. Campbell was robbed of $60 worth of cutlery, firearms, etc., and about $10 in cash. Detective Riggle and Officer Osborne went out with the bloodhound and an investigation was made. Tracks about the two buildings entered showed that two burglars had been at work. The dog immediately took the scent and followed the trail across the fields and down a lane to the public road, where it was evident that the thieves had a buggy awaiting them to carry away the large amount of booty which they had brought with them. No further trace could be found.

JOHN W. VOGEL'S MINSTRELS COMING TO CHARLEROI

John W. Vogel's Big City Minstrels have reached the highest summit of perfection, towering above all similar attractions, a monument to the march of progressive minstrel enterprise.

It is unequaled, conducted on a broad and liberal basis, the company containing the leading lights of minstrelsy, the very cream of laugh producers, and the pick of high class novelty presenting a program entirely different to all other minstrel organizations, and a welcome relief from the old and thread-bare methods so long in use by similar enterprises. The public's wants have been carefully considered by Manager Vogel, who has acquired recognition for the advancement and further development of minstrelsy, receiving the praise and steadfast financial support of all lovers of amusement. This famous organization will be seen at Coyle theatre April 9th. A grand and imposing free spectacular street parade will be given on that day.

COMPANY WITH PLANT HERE ASKS FOR RECEIVER, WHICH IS GRANTED

A. M. Hamilton filed a bill in equity at Pittsburg yesterday asking that a receiver be appointed for the W. H. Hamilton Company, glass bottle manufacturers. The plantiff, who owns 661 shares of stock in the company, states that the concern is unable to meet pressing indebtedness, and is insolvent. He sets forth that the company has capital stock issued to the amount of $211,400 and that at the present time the liabilities consist of bills payable amounting to $157,000; accounts payable, $16,500, and a mortgage on the company plant of $139,000, given to secure certain debts. The assets consist of bills receivable, $6,050; real estate and equipment of plant, $275,000 and finished material on hand valued at $9,000. It is stated that creditors of the company are about to get judgment on their claims, and it will be to the benefit of all the creditors if a receiver is named. The company filed an answer admitting insolvency.

OVERCOME WHILE MAKING ROUNDS

Daniel Reese, fire boss at the Catsburg mine, was overcome yesterday morning, while making his rounds. Mr. Reese was on duty temporarily in place of Victor Deloche. The other fire bosses, John Carroll and John Neel, after making their rounds, waited for Mr. Reese at the accustomed place. As he did not come on time they started to hunt him, and found him in one of the entries, overcome by some trouble with his heart. He was at once removed to his home, and a physician summoned.

A pleasant social event of the season was the party at the home of Eli Crable at North Charleroi last night. About fifty guests were present and spent the evening with dancing and card playing. Lunch was served at 12. There was present several from Belle Vernon and other out-of-town places.

JUVENILE MINSTRELS MAKE GREAT HIT IN FIRST PERFORMANCE

The Juvenile Minstrels played to a large audience at the Charleroi School hall last night and proved that nothing had been said of their accomplishments that was not true. The youngsters went through their parts in a manner that would do credit to professionals. Their ballads and end songs were well rendered and the familiar quips of the end "kids" were a source of much delight to the audience.

The olio was particularly good. Little Benjamin Jones made a great hit in his singing act. Vandergould in his handcuff and strait jacket escape tricks took well.

Albert Schoener in buck and wing dances was good. The cake walk by the company was something new and showed much training.

Much credit is due Johnnie Jenkins for his able handling of the boys. The show will be repeated tonight.

While engaged in removing the bodies of a number of old soldiers from the old graveyard on the west side of North Franklin street, Washington, the other day, the petrified body of a woman was found. Nothing marked the grave and no record could be found as to how long the body had been in the grave. Only the head and shoulders were unearthed, but the shape of the body containing the outlines and features of the woman were distinctly noticeable.

COMMITTEE NOT ABLE TO REACH AN AGREEMENT

Arbitration Clause Suits Miners, But Wage Scale Comes First.

GOOD SUPPLY OF COAL

Stored Along Roads, So That Month's Suspension Will Not Be Felt.

The joint scale committee of the operators and miners, which has been meeting in the assembly rooms of the Pittsburg Coal Company, adjourned sine die yesterday, without being any nearer an agreement than when it first convened. Hope of settlement of the dispute came from another quarter in the afternoon, however, when National President T. L. Lewis, of the miners, wired from Indianapolis a request for a conference with the operators and the latter promptly accepted. The reviving of the interstate convention may be the outcome of this conference.

The question of an arbitration clause, providing that where a dispute occurred in one mine it should not affect the other mines of a company and, further, there should be no suspension of works, was favorably regarded by the miners. From the conciliatory attitude they displayed toward this clause, it is probable it would have been adopted promptly had the wage agreement been reached. While the deadlock was on the telegram from Mr. Lewis came and it was decided to drop the negotiation here.

While the scale committee was meeting, the convention of the miners in Moorehead hall was having its own troubles. The greater part of the morning session was taken up with a discussion of a resolution presented by Delegate Van Bittner, making charges of negligence against the National Organizer William Little, and asking National President Lewis not to reappoint him. Little addressed the convention, denying the charges and declaring that his records and reports are filed at national headquarters. The resolution was referred to the grievance committee.

National Board Member S. A. Wetzel arrived in Pittsburg from Indianapolis yesterday and will assist in carrying out the orders of President Lewis. He was accompanied by Thomas Haggerty of district No. 2. Haggerty addressed the convention. The miners will hold another meeting this morning.

There will be no resumption of mining until the agreement is reached with the miners, according to one prominent operator. He said yesterday that while he recognized the merit of President Lewis' idea to have a general resumption, it would not take place until the scale had been signed. At least, he said he was for having the final agreement before the mines opened up and he thought most of the other operators felt the same way. There appears to be a good supply of coal, and no fear is felt for a month, at least, even if the mines should remain idle that long. It is claimed about 13,000,000 bushels are stored along the railroads in the Pittsburg district. The non-union mines in the Irwin field are working as usual, and these, with the coal stored, it is asserted by some, will keep the supply up to demand for some time.

Craven on Tener's Platform.

The Acheson newspapers and some of the speakers who have been shouting for local option, but who have been doing so for certain people rather than for the movement, have been unsparing in their denunciation of Mr. Tener for his position on local option. Those same people have purposely misrepresented what Mr. Tener said or have ignored it. They have at the same time lauded Frank Craven for his position on the question.

Mr. Tener some weeks ago made a very clear statement of his position and has since enlarged upon it. In his published letter to the people he said:

"Referring to our recent conversation relative to my attitude on the liquor license question, I desire to make my position thereon plain to you and all other fair minded citizens.

"Admitting that there is an honest difference of opinion as to the details of a local option bill, let me say that I would not assume to dictate to a State legislative body, of which I shall not be a member, just what kind of a bill in all such details that body should pass; but I am unalterably of the opinion that the right should be given the people in any designated territory to decide by their votes whether or not license should be granted, and I would give my support to the bill presented by and satisfactory to those friends of local option having charge of it in the State Legislature, where, and where only, the question must be settled."

Mr. Craven, who is put forth as the Simon pure, unadulterated oracle on this question, in his answer to the interrogatories addressed to the candidates as to their position, said:

"Replying to the third and fourth questions my answer is as follows:

"I am for local option; it's an American principle, giving the people the right to decide for themselves by ballot, this much vexed question of license or no license. And, if elected, I would work and vote for that local option bill agreed upon by the representative temperance people of the state, after due deliberation and consultation."

Now in all candor it must be admitted that Mr. Tener and Mr. Craven stand on the same platform. And any more cavil as to Mr. Tener's attitude should cease—would simply be useless. Mr. Craven evidently was satisfied with the platform of his neighbor on the Monongahela and got as nearly as possible to it. If Mr. Tener does not stand for local option neither does Mr. Craven.

If it wasn't that a decided loose state of affairs is disclosed where strict watch should be kept over a decidedly loose and dangerous set of men, there would be a laugh at the idea of a prisoner in the Washington county jail getting drunk and while in the mood for any kind of rash action deciding that he would leave the refuge afforded him by the commonwealth and run away from jail. That is one of the features of carelessness about the jail that has recently been discovered and nobody is laughing at it either. Just imagine Judge Taylor out walking one of these sunshiny days and being accosted by a prisoner whom he recently sentenced and being asked by the "prisoner" in maudlin tones of too much drug store booze if the sentence couldn't be shortened some. This is another one of the examples of the way the county jail is run. The superintendent of prison labor, if there is one, must be taken his vacation early this year.

A club has been formed for the remarkable purpose of providing the truth or falsity of the proposition that the earth is hollow. Just what benefit will accrue if the sphere is found to have a roomy exterior is not shown, but it will doubtless be utilized as a lecture room for the vociferous Bryan.

SOME OF

Fifty Reasons Why the Voters Should Not Support Acheson Against Tener For Congress

Because he caused political assessments to be levied upon the saloons of the district, and forced the proprietors into politics.

Because in previous campaigns he has countenanced the use of liquor in politics to gain his personal ends.

Because he uses the fiscal department of Washington county to promote his political interest.

Because he has voted the assemblymen of Washington county for Penrose against the protests of his constituents backed by a petition bearing 5,000 signatures.

Because he seeks to be nominated by vilifying a man whose character has never been assailed.

Because it is very important that the next Congress be composed of real Republicans and Mr. Acheson is no longer regarded as a Republican by the great statesmen at Washington.

Because the prevailing idea that he will bolt the party if not nominated places him in bad grace with the party.

Because he did not and cannot carry his home town, Washington, where the people know him better than any place in the district.

Because a man who has spent a major part of his life in silence upon the great question of temperance is not a fit leader to follow in a campaign for civic righteousness.

Because his weakness was shown two years ago when the districts where liquor was sold came to his rescue, and it was the whiskey vote that elected him.

How He Did It.

"When I was connected with a certain western railway," says a prominent official of an eastern line, "we had in our employ a brakeman who, for special service rendered to the road, was granted a month's vacation.

"He decided to spend his time in a trip over the Rockies. We furnished him with passes.

"He went to Denver and there met a number of his friends at work on one of the Colorado roads. They gave him a good time and when he went away made him a present of a mountain goat.

"Evidently our brakeman was at a loss to get the animal home with him, as the express charges were very heavy at that time. Finally, however, hitting upon a happy expedient, he made out a shipping tag and tied it to the horns of the goat. Then he presented the beast to the office of the stock car line.

"Well, that tag created no end of amusement, but it served to accomplish the end of the brakeman. It was inscribed as follows:

"'Please pass the butter. Thomas J. Meechin, brakeman, S. S. and T. Ry.'"
—Harper's Weekly.

Precious Models.

"Was it stolen?"

"No, but the models were—a ham and some sausages."—London Tit-Bits.

SCHOOL BOARD HAS REGULAR MONTHLY MEET

The School Board met in regular monthly session last night. The routine business was gone through, bills and other matters of monthly occurence coming up for action of the board. Letters from each of the teachers, concerning their work were in the hands of the seretary and a number of them were read, the others being laid on the table until the next meeting. Those letters are ones asked for some time ago by the board, so that they might become better acquainted with the work of the respective teachers, and gain an idea of what the student had to became familiar with in each room.

Prof. W. D. Wright made a lengthy verbal report for the past month, it being satisfactory. The progress being made on the new building was reported. Many unimportant matters were talked of, but no further business of consequence done.

Coincidence.

The strange story told by a defaulting debtor of his being recognized after he had been for six years trying to live down the past is not so strange a story as one which came within the ken of Professor Jowett. A good man went wrong, was caught and sentenced at Liverpool to imprisonment. After the sinner had served his term Jowett and others helped him, and he obtained a colonial editorship where his past was unknown. He did well; was a new man. One day a tornado swept off the roof of his office. Under the roof was discovered a batch of old English papers which had been placed there and forgotten after the mail had brought them. He set members of his staff to work to get out of the derelicts anything which might be interesting enough to print. The first thing that they found was a full report of the trial and conviction of the man himself, their editor, at Liverpool all those years before.—St. James' Gazette.

Why not healthful heating

HAVEN'T you noticed when the indoor air is so hot and dry that people feel chilly? It is because the hot air from the furnace in its search for moisture is robbing your skin, eyes, throat, lungs, and nostrils.

AMERICAN Radiators and IDEAL Boilers never overheat the air, but warm it mildly and genially. It is the most healthful heat known—that is why they are used exclusively in hospitals, greenhouses, laboratories, and in palatial homes.

AMERICAN RADIATORS & IDEAL BOILERS are now made in sizes to fit smallest cottages, stores, etc. The prices are so attractive and the results so economical, no one can longer afford to put up with the nuisance or run the risks of old-fashioned heating.

The Millinery Display the Center of Interest

It's the handsomest gathering of Spring Modes that Charleroi has ever seen, so says everyone. The Millinery Section is a show place anyway, and the brilliant gathering of Spring and Summer Hats now makes it a fairyland of verdant airiness and beauty.

The exquisite PATTERN HATS are creating no end of interest. Have you seen them? Then the Children's Hats are attracting lots of attention, too. It might surprise you to know how many shapes we have sold already. It shows that everybody is busy planning for a new hat. No matter what the weather may be, spring hats are going to be the thing from now on.

The Proof of the Pudding

Nearly all fire insurance policies are dressed alike.

They are mostly gaily lithographed fellows filled with many "aforesaids" and "hereinafters."

They all promise you the same thing—protection.

The proof that the promise is protection lies in the past record and present condition of the issuing company

Our policies are backed by companies that have been tried and proven.

You Can Easily Operate This Typewriter Yourself

Don't worry your correspondent.

Don't write him anything by hand that takes him time to make out—that may leave him in doubt—that he can't easily read.

And don't fill out legal papers or send memos—or make out accounts or hotel menus in your own handwriting.

It looks bad, reflects on your standing, makes people think you can't afford a stenographer, and is sometimes ambiguous.

You can write out your letters—make out an abstract—fill in an insurance policy—enter your card memos—make out your accounts or a hotel menu—or do any kind of writing [illegible] or thickness of paper you want on

The OLIVER Typewriter

You can write any of these things if you do not happen to have a stenographer.

For you can easily learn, with a little practice, to write just as rapidly, and as perfectly, as an expert operator on the OLIVER. Because the OLIVER is the simplified typewriter. And you can see every word you write. About 80 per cent. more durable than any other typewriter, because it has about 80 per cent. less wearing points than most other typewriters.

80 per cent. easier to write with than these other complicated, intricate machine that require "humroning"—technical knowledge—long practice and special skill to operate.

Than machines which cannot be adjusted to any special space—with which it is impossible to write abstracts, insurance policies, or odd-size documents except you buy expensive special attachments requiring experts to operate.

You can adjust the OLIVER to any reasonable space—you can write on any reasonable size and thickness of paper, right out to the very edge, without the aid of any expensive attachments or special skill, and your work will be neat appearing, legible and clear.

For the OLIVER is the typewriter for the doctor, the lawyer, the insurance agent, the merchant, the hotel proprietor—or any man who does his own writing.

Write us now for our booklet on the simplified features of the OLIVER.

Making More Than a Living

Nearly every man who works steadily makes more than a living. During these slow times the men who have saved something appreciate what it is to have something laid away for a rainy day. A few cents a day soon counts up, and when savings are placed in a bank at a tidy interest the sum soon grows to proportions that make it a safeguard against want when work is not plentiful. Figure up how much more than a living you are making now, and place the difference in this bank. Four per cent. intereet paid in savings department.

given by Mrs. Mary C. Marshall in the Superior Court of Cincinnati.

"I coughed continually for six months—lungs very sore—had constant pain in my chest—and was much emaciated—could find no relief. After two-thirds of my first bottle of my health began to improve and I soon grew strong and fat."

Such sworn testimony, from many witnesses, convinced the Court and secured for us a permanent injunction against a worthless imitation. For nearly half a century Piso's Cure has been relieving the most obstinate coughs and colds of both bronchial and pulmonary [illegible]
